Good evening,

Happy New Year!

Tomorrow is our first day of the second semester. Students should be in advisement by 8:30 am. Advisement will be extended so that students may receive schedules for the second semester. Students should be in uniform shirts, uniform khaki pants, and solid black, blue, gray, or brown shoes. Parents, students may layer their uniform shirts, but the uniform shirt should be visible at all times. We are a uniform school and safety is a priority. We can easily identify our students in uniforms.

PTSA is this Thursday January 9 at 6:00 pm. We will elect officers on this Thursday. All parents, guardians, and students are encouraged to attend.

Saturday School begins this Saturday at 9:00 am and ends at 12:00 pm. More details will be announced later this week. Extended Learning will resume on Monday January 13 and Extended Learning is every Monday, Tuesday, and sometimes on Thursday this semester.

Did you know that we offer FEV tutor for all students to use at home? Please see below for more information.

Unfortunately, it's flu season. We encourage you to clean all book bags, jackets, coats, hoodies, etc... on a regular basis to prevent the spread of the flu. We also welcome all classroom donations of Lysol and Lysol or Clorox wipes.

Lastly, we will be sending out the link to our Georgia Parent Survey this week and we're hoping to move from 4 stars to 5 stars.

Thanks for listening, have a great week, and we look forward to seeing all of our students tomorrow morning at 8:30 am in advisement.

Thanks,

Mrs. Bethea
