Good Morning and Happy Friday,

We are temporarily out of textbooks for Algebra I and Environmental Science. Textbook distribution is today from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm for Geometry, AP Biology, and AP Statistics only. Teachers will work with our students in Algebra I and Environmental Science without textbooks.

If you missed any Virtual Open House sessions, your student can view the sessions on Google classroom, <https://classroom.google.com/>

Students should use their Hapeville email address located in Infinite Campus and their password should be their student id. We use Gmail, www.gmail.com for our email. If students have any issues with their HCCA issued device or email, they should enter tickets using this link: <http://hapevillecharter.freshdesk.com/support/tickets/new>
